Empathy Embellished: _____

A COMMERCE-INFUSED SPECTACLE

November 3rd

On 3rd November 2025, the students of Grade 11 B1 at DRS International School orchestrated an exquisitely crafted morning assembly on the profound theme of Empathy. Seamlessly amalgamating concepts of Commerce with humanitarian values, they demonstrated how empathy permeates practical decision-making and augments harmony in everyday life. Their skit, rendered with artful finesse, evocative expression, and commendable stage presence, vividly illustrated the transformative power of compassionate conduct. Each participant embodied their role with remarkable conviction, lending depth and dignity to the performance. The audience was deeply enraptured, witnessing an intricate blend of intellect, artistry, and emotional resonance. The assembly culminated in a resounding triumph, leaving an indelible impression of grace, ingenuity, and collective dedication by the students of Grade 11 B1.

THE CHAOS BEGINS: —————

PRE-BOARD EXAMINATIONS FOR GRADE X & XII

————— November 13th-24th

IMPORTANCE AND IMPACT...

Teachers reported that students displayed commendable dedication, arriving early to revise, clarify doubts, and prepare themselves mentally for each day's paper. The supportive atmosphere created by the faculty, invigilators, and administrative staff ensured a smooth and stress-free conduct of the exams.

For many students, the Pre-Boards served as a valuable self-assessment tool, helping them identify their strengths and the areas that need reinforcement. Following the exams, subject teachers have begun detailed feedback sessions, guiding students through answer scripts, marking schemes, and performance improvement strategies.

The corridors of DRS International School echoed with determination and academic focus as students of Grades X and XII undertook their Pre-Board Examinations from 13th to 24th November. These crucial assessments marked an important milestone in their academic journey, giving students a realistic preview of the rigor and expectations of the upcoming Board Examinations.

Over nearly two weeks, students were tested across all major subjects under strict exam protocols that mirrored the final board environment. The examinations aimed to assess not only content mastery but also time management, writing skills, and exam temperament—key qualities essential for success in the CBSE and Cambridge board patterns.

THE CHILDRENS DAY:

A DAY OF JOY, LAUGHTER & UNFORGETTABLE MEMORIES

November 14th

The day began with a warm and spirited welcome assembly, after which the teachers took to the stage with a series of delightful performances dedicated to the students. From energetic dance numbers and soulful songs to humorous skits that had the audience laughing nonstop, every performance reflected the teachers' affection, creativity, and enthusiasm. It was a refreshing sight for students to watch their mentors step into the limelight just for them.

Adding to the festive atmosphere, faculty members organized a vibrant Carnival of Fun, transforming the school grounds into a colorful fair. A variety of food stalls offered delicious treats, while game booths—from ring toss and balloon pop to lucky draws and challenge stations—kept students entertained throughout the day. Laughter echoed across the field as students participated eagerly, cheering each other on and enjoying the break from their regular schedules.

The celebration concluded with a warm note of gratitude from the school leadership, acknowledging the tremendous efforts of the faculty and the enthusiastic participation of the students.

THE PT-2 EXAMINATIONS:

PRACTICE FOR PERFECTION

November 17th-22nd

The academic atmosphere at DRS International School was charged with focus and determination as students of Grades 6–9 and 11 appeared for the Periodic Test–2 examinations held from 17th to 22nd November. These assessments formed an essential part of the academic calendar, offering students an opportunity to measure their understanding and progress across subjects before the end-term evaluations.

The successful completion of the Periodic Test–2 examinations stands as a testament to the hard work of students and the consistent academic guidance provided by the faculty. As we move ahead into the next phase of the academic year, DRS International School remains committed to fostering academic excellence and continuous growth in every learner.

Across all grades, students demonstrated commendable discipline and preparedness. The examination halls reflected an environment of seriousness and sincerity as learners tackled questions that tested conceptual clarity, analytical thinking, and application of knowledge. Teachers and invigilators ensured the smooth and fair conduct of all examinations, providing students with a structured and supportive testing environment.

For many students, PT-2 served as an important checkpoint—helping them identify areas of strength while highlighting concepts that require further reinforcement. Following the tests, teachers have begun sharing feedback and guiding students on effective study strategies for the upcoming finals.

A Salute to Empathy: _____

A TRIBUTE ETCHED IN GRATITUDE

November 17th

On 17th November 2025, the students of Grade 11 B2 at DRS International School curated a profoundly moving and exquisitely articulated assembly on the noble theme of Empathy. The presentation was distinguished not only by its thematic richness but also by the students' heartfelt gesture of honouring the school's support and non-teaching staff, whose unwavering contributions fortify the institution's daily functioning.

With dignified acknowledgment and sincere appreciation, the learners paid homage to their invaluable efforts, thereby exemplifying true compassion and respect. Their performances, rendered with artistic elegance and expressive finesse, captivated the audience and illuminated the essence of empathetic living.

The assembly culminated in a glorious triumph, leaving an indelible impression of gratitude, emotional depth, and collective artistry showcased by the class.

COMPETING FOR THE HOUSE:

THE INTER HOUSE EXTEMPORE COMPETITION

November 19th

The Inter House Extempore Competition organized for the CBSE, MYP and DP segments was a testament to the institution's commitment to holistic development. It was conducted with the aim of honing the oratory prowess, spontaneity, and analytical thinking of the participants. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, who were tasked with delivering an impromptu speech on a randomly selected topic for a duration of three minutes.

The competition successfully fostered a spirit of healthy rivalry, enhanced public speaking skills, and reinforced the importance of critical thinking. The seamless execution of the event was a reflection of the dedication of the organizing committee and the unwavering support of the faculty.

About the judges and audience...

The mantle of judges was adorned by Ms Florence and Ms Anitha, who commended the participants for their eloquence, coherence, and ability to articulate thoughts under pressure

The topics, which included "The Importance of Time Management" "The Future Belongs to Innovators" and "Given A Day to Become Invisible," elicited thoughtful perspectives from the speakers.

The audience was captivated by the participants' confidence and creativity in addressing complex issues.

AN EXPERTS OPINION ON:

CAREER CROSSROADS CONCLAVE

November 24th

The “Job or Business” conclave unfurled as an intellectually scintillating sojourn for Classes XI and XII. Students had been enthralled by an erudite discourse that demystified employment and entrepreneurship with remarkable lucidity. The esteemed Director, Mr. Sanjay Agarwal, had illuminated labyrinthine career dilemmas, transforming uncertainty into exhilarating possibility. The session had culminated in renewed ambition, discerning clarity, and a palpable zeal for future endeavors.

The poster features the DRS International School logo at the top left, with the motto 'SINCE 2003 Strive To Surpass IB World School'. To the right are logos for IB, IB CONTINUUM, and the Indian national emblem. The main title 'DRSIS' is in large blue letters, followed by 'JOB or BUSINESS' in a yellow box. Below this, it says 'Session with Class XI & XII Students (CBSE and IBDP)'. A central portrait of Mr. Sanjay Agarwal is shown with a microphone. Below the photo, it identifies him as 'Session Speaker' and 'Director, DRS INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL'. At the bottom, the event details are listed: 'Date : 24th November, 2025', 'Timings: 9:20AM to 10:00AM', and 'Venue: AV HALL'. The background includes decorative elements like a clock, a bar chart, and a lightbulb labeled 'IDEA'.
